PROXY STATEMENTS:

American Telephone & Telegraph

Directors' Proposal: Eliminate from Certificate of Incorporation mandatory requirement that shareholders be extended pre-emptive rights to new shares.

"On motion made by Anderson, seconded by Stephens and carried, the board voted in favor of the Directors' Proposal.

Proxy Statements

(1) That the stockholders of American Telephone and Telegraph assembled in annual meeting in person and by proxy affirm the political nonpartisanship of the Corporation by avoiding certain practices, etc:

On motion made by Stephens seconded by Anderson and carried the Board voted against the shareholder proposal, with Mr. Simpson opposing.

(2) Starting with the end of the 1975 annual meeting management shall vote shares represented by its form of proxy received in response to its proxy solicitation strictly in accordance with the valid votes cast by the stockholder. For votes counted for; Against votes counted against and ballots not marked by shareholder either for or against shall not be counted by either side.

On motion made by Stephens, seconded by Anderson and carried, the Board voted against the shareholder proposal, with Mr. Simpson voting in favor of the proposal.

(3) The shareholders recommend the management of AT&T to take necessary steps to form independent corporations from sections of Bell System which are in competition with other companies, AT&T's share of stock of these corporations being proportionately distributed to its shareholders.

On motion made by Anderson, seconded by Stephens and carried the Board voted against the Shareholder proposal.

(4) Provide for pro-rate distribution of Western Electric stock to AT&T stockholders instead of, in our opinion, a rip-off or sell-off of Western Elec. Co. or Western Elec. stock to stockholders other than AT&T owners. On motion made by Anderson, seconded by Stephens and carried, the Board voted against shareholder proposal.

13. INVESTMENTS

PROXY STATEMENTS:

General Electric

Directors Proposal: See same under American Telephone and Telegraph.

(1) Disclose impact of weapons contracts (such as the B-1 bomber) it holds on present & future employment levels and extent to which corporation is committed to securing civilian contracts which will contribute toward full employment and a lessening of inflationary spiral of the U.S. economy.

On motion made by Stephens, seconded by Anderson and carried, the Board voted against the shareholder proposal.

(2) To add paragraph to Article VII of by-laws of Company: (i.e) the company shall fully and explicity explain and graphically illustrate how the shareholders may alter the Company paid for form of proxy accompanying such proxy statement so as to appoint any person or persons they themselves choose, rather than names the Board of Directors has printed on such form of proxy.

On motion made by Anderson, seconded by Stephens and carried, the Board voted against the shareholder proposal.

E. I. DuPont

(3) No corporate funds of this organization shall be given to any charitable, educational or other similar organizations, except for purposes in direct furtherance of business interests of corporation and subject to the further provision that the aggregate amount of such contributions shall be reported not later than date of annual meeting.

On motion made by Anderson, seconded by Stephens and carried the Board voted against the Shareholder proposal.

(4) Requesting stockholders of E. I. DuPont hereby request any new stock option plans be made subject to certain provisions.

On motion made by Stephens, seconded by Anderson and carried, the Board voted against the shareholder proposal.
